

Dear Friends

The year 2009 celebrates many significant musical anniversaries. This happily gives our chamber music festival the opportunity to pay tribute to celebrated composers such as Handel, Haydn, Mendelssohn and Martinů.

Although none of these composers really needs an anniversary in order to be performed, nonetheless, this is a wonderful chance to broaden our horizons in performing and listening to their music, to look over their shoulders, as it were, and delve deeper into their creative processes.

True to our tradition, we have another theme running along in counterpoint which this year will turn the spotlight on great composers who could be classed as maverick – not directly in the mainstream, but who created wonderful chamber music masterpieces: Franck, Messiaen, Fauré, Enesco, Falla, Roslavetz, Bruckner, Taneyev, Reger, Spohr, Schulhoff, Respighi and many others.

We are honoured to present yet another commission by the legendary Elliot Carter, and premieres of works by the Russian composer, Vladimir Tarnopolsky and Israeli Roy Zu-Aretz both of whom explore new instrumentations and genres.

These wide-ranging chamber music works will be performed by an equally diverse array of superb musicians, new visitors and old, who, together with you, our unique audience, make this festival such a special and wonderful event.
